THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 12.

THE PASTOR'S VICTORY .- Many years ago, when detaking habits were more prevalent than now, a Congregational minister in York county preached a very strong temperance sermon that made a sensation in the parish. Some of the leading members of the congregation felt insulted. They got up and left gation left instities. They got up and left the house during the sermon, and then cent a letter demanding an apology or the preach-er's resignation. The next Sunday the pas-tor ancounced from the rulpit that he would comply with the gentlemen's request in the comply with the gentlemen's request in the evening. Of course, everybody who could go to the church that evening was there, the disaffected ones with smiles on their faces at the thought of how they had triumpen over the minister. The worthy man ascended the model wently man the manifester over the manifester. pulpit, went through the preliminary exer-cises, and then announced his text: "And being convicted by their own consciencies they went out one by one." The sermon preached from that text was a sunner, but nothing more was said about an apology, and the minister did not resign —Mt. Desert Me) Herald.

A BIG RAFT -A mammoth raft, which eclipses in size the Joggins raft that broke away from the steamer Miranda in December, 1887, and caused so much peril to ocean steamships, will soon be towed into the port of New York II the projectors of the enterprise are favored with good luck. The powerful ocean tugs B F. Haviland and E Heipershau-en left New York Tuesday afternoon for St. John's, N. B., where they will take the glant in tow. It will be omposed of seventeen section, each 100 feet long, 25 feet thick and thirt-like feet wide. The raft will draw fourneen feet of water, and will project reven feet above the water's edge. Each section of the great of the great water's edge. raft will be cigat - haped, and will be a congly bound with chains and connected by strong shackles. The whole structure is so designed that in case of necessity one secout adrift, and in case there is danger of loss to the whole raft, the greater part of it may be saved. The raft will be 1,700 feet long.

PALATABLE INSECT POWDER .-- At an officer's mess in the East Indies the cakes ! handed round for desert were goatly rel ished for their choice flavor and rach saffron color, which excellent properties were attributed to the baking powder used in their preparation. One day the native cook brought the announcement that his stock was exhausted, and he was told to 'e ch the was exhausted, and he was told to 'e ch the empty canister in order that a fresh supply might be ordered from the same firm. With the knowing air of one who has made a PHILADELPHIA, and via these lines to all and via these lines to all and the control of the co grand discovery the cook exhibited the empty canister, which was found to have con tained Persian insect powder .- Phare du
